

August Nimtz received his Ph.D. in Political Science from Indiana University in 1973. With his dissertation "The Sufi Order in Political Change in Tanzania." He has been teaching at the University of Minnesota since in the departments of African American and African Studies since 1971. He has written numerous books on a wide range of topics including Marx and Engels: Their Contribution to the Democratic Breakthrough (2000), Marx, Tocqueville, and Race in America: The 'Absolute Democracy' or 'Defiled Republic' (2003), and a number of related articles in edited volumes and journals.