

Darell Rankin

I have been the leader of the Communist Party of Canada – Manitoba since 1996 (employed until 2013). I joined the CP in 1978 in Edmonton, Alberta, where I was born and raised. I have also worked in the oil patch and construction, and organized and researched for unions. I have a B.A. (political science and economics). I am a past chair and treasurer of the Canadian Peace Alliance and have been active in a range of other movements.
